

Good to know:

Travellers cannot purchase an Interrail One Country Pass for their country of residence. However, the Interrail Global Pass includes two free journeys within the holder's country of residence: one outbound journey from the departure station to the border station, airport, or port when starting the trip, and one return journey in the opposite direction when travelling back home.

Interrail Passes are issued in the name of the pass holder and are non-transferable. A valid identity document must be presented at the time of purchase. Passes can be purchased up to 11 months before the start of travel.

Children up to the age of 11 travel free when accompanied by an adult.

Some higher-category trains require an additional supplement to be paid. Seat reservations, as well as berth reservations in sleeping and couchette cars, may also be subject to an extra charge.

Please keep your Interrail Pass safe at all times. If it is lost or stolen, you are not entitled to a refund or a replacement pass.

General terms and conditions, as well as more detailed information about Interrail Passes, are available at www.interrail.com.
